HubVoices: Let's Connect!

Friday, June 26th | 4PM

HubVoices: Town Hall

Join us as we connect as an Adlerian community to discuss the impact of current events stemming from the murder of George Floyd, a Black man, tragically killed by a Minneapolis police officer and in full view of the public on May 25, 2020. We also want to discuss how we as counselors and counselors-in-training use our voices, skills, and community standing to commit to long-term, everyday social justice and advocacy work.

Our Keynote speaker for this event is Lissa L. Jones-Lofgren.

All are welcome to share, to pose questions, and to move us to act against systemic racism in policies, procedures, and practices that devalue the lives and communities of Black people.

Keynote: Lissa L. Jones-Lofgren

Lissa L. Jones-Lofgren is the creator and host of KMOJ's (89.9 FM) Urban Agenda and host of the podcast Black Market Reads. Through her work, she investigates the impact that beliefs and values held around 'race', place, class, identity, orientation, gender, faith, and occupation (vocation) impact the behavior of individuals, groups, and structures within organizations.
